"Journey Through Paradise"
Photography Exhibit by Alan Maltz

Alan Maltz is the official Wildlife and Fine Art Photographer of Florida. His works grace private, public and corporate art collections, and has been featured in ARTnews, The New Yorker, The Philadelphia Inquirer, The Miami Herald; O, The Oprah Magazine, and Newsday, among others. Museum visitors will be the first to see the photos in full size and have a chance to order books and win signed works. Naples journalist Karen T. Bartlett, who spent the past two winters living on Chokoloskee Island, wrote the text for the book. She is the travel editor of Gulfshore Life magazine and the author of hundreds of travel articles and nine destination coffee table books.

Journey Through Paradise is Alan Maltz's fifth large format fine art photography book showcasing the wonders of Florida. The Naples, Marco Island, Everglades Convention and Visitor's Bureau initially commissioned him to create a series of images to represent the region in its worldwide marketing efforts. That commission was the inspiration the book. The $60 hardcover book features 147 photographs on fine art-quality paper. There is also a special boxed and personalized Artist's Edition. The entire book can be previewed online at www.alanmaltz.com. Included in the show will be images printed on aluminum, Maltz's newest and most exciting medium. The stunning new high definition fine art prints are suitable for indoor and shaded outdoor applications, and are both waterproof and scratch resistant. The technique has received rave reviews among critics and collectors worldwide.

On Saturday, November 2, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m., Maltz will be on hand to greet visitors, fellow artists and collectors.

The Museum is located at 105 West Broadway, Everglades City, telephone (239) 695-0008
Open to the public Tuesday through Friday, 9 am to 5 pm, and Saturday, 9 am to 4 pm
