Pauline Reeves Gallery

An impressive exhibit is currently on display at the Museum of the Everglades with well renowned artists Nicholas Petrucci and Connie Bransilver. Nicholas' larger than life oil paintings of various individuals (Gladesman Franklin Adams shown here), Clyde Butcher, Nathaniel Reed and others are featured as well as Connie's extraordinary photographs printed on 8' silk panels that grace the Pauline Reeves Gallery. The artists will be at the Museum to greet visitors during the Seafood Festival on Saturday, February 4. The exhibit will be on display through February.

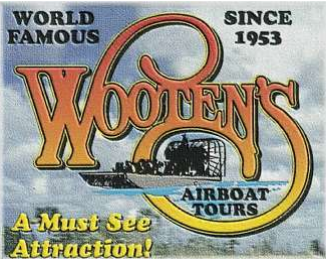

The MSD Festival is scheduled for Tuesday through Friday, February 21-24. A schedule of events is enclosed. If you have not yet made reservations, please call 695-0008. One of the most popular events has always been the luncheon at the Everglades Seafood Depot on Tuesday and this year will be extra special.

The Museum of the Everglades is located at 105 West Broadway and open Tuesday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.). There is no admission charge but donations are welcome. For more information, phone 695-0008 or visit website www.evergladesmuseum.org.

The Museum is located at 105 West Broadway, Everglades City, telephone (239) 695-0008
Open to the public Tuesday through Friday, 9 am to 5 pm, and Saturday, 9 am to 4 pm
