Pauline Reeves Gallery

The exhibit for the month of February features the photography of Paul Marcellini, titled “Unspoiled Florida.” See more of his work at website www.paulmarcellini.com. The Friends of the Museum of the Everglades will host a reception to meet the artist from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 9, during the Seafood Festival at 105 W. Broadway in Everglades City.

Tom, Tina & the U.S. Express will also be playing music on Saturday and Sunday afternoon. Please stop by!

MSD FESTIVAL

The 9th Annual Marjory Stoneman Douglas Festival will begin with a luncheon at the Everglades Seafood Depot on Tuesday, February 19. Our guest speaker will be Elam Stoltzfus presenting “Into the Wind, Against the Current, and Off the Beaten Trail” which is the story of his expedition through Florida last year. A preview of his documentary about this extraordinary adventure will also be shown. As in the past, there are many other exciting programs, including talks by Franklin Adams, Joe Guthrie, Bob DeGross, Jack Berninger, Mike Owen, and Chris Rollins (Fruit & Spice Park in Homestead). Guided tram tours, canoe tours, walks through the Fakahatchee, and orchid exhibits are also available. Call Martha at 695-0008 to make reservations. Many of the activities are filling up fast. A brochure is included with this newsletter and is also available at the Museum.

The Museum is located at 105 West Broadway, Everglades City, telephone (239) 695-0008
Open to the public Tuesday through Friday, 9 am to 5 pm, and Saturday, 9 am to 4 pm
