Pauline Reeves Gallery

“A Look into the World of Our Native Seminoles”

Historic Photographs Courtesy of the Seminole Tribe of Florida

An exhibit of historic photographs, courtesy of the Seminole Tribe of Florida, will be on display in the Pauline Reeves Gallery through March. Join us as we explore the wonderful culture of our beloved Native Seminoles. Through this black and white exhibit we get a small glimpse of a culture once hidden deep in the Everglades.

This exhibit will be featured in the Pauline Reeves Gallery through the months of February and March. Dr. Annette Snapp, Operations Manager of the Ah-Tah-Thi-Ki Museum, will be on hand to meet with visitors at the Museum of the Everglades during the Seafood Festival on Saturday, February 7. Also, during the Seafood Festival, the Friends of the Museum will have a raffle for a Clyde Butcher print as well as a Dennis Goodman print. Please plan to stop by the Museum of the Everglades (the pink building on West Broadway).
